FEE-HELP Review Procedures
Introduction
This policy is current as of 10 April 2015.

Scope
This policy is applicable to Kaplan Higher Education Pty Ltd, trading as Kaplan Professional Education (“Kaplan”).

Overview
Any student eligible for a loan to assist with the cost of their tuition fees under the Higher Education Loan Program (HELP), who withdraws from the course of study after the census date, or does not complete the requirements for the course, may apply to Kaplan to have their FEE-HELP balance re-credited due to special circumstances.

In accordance with the Higher Education Support Act 2003, Kaplan will implement the following procedures for reviewing decisions made in relation to FEE-HELP:

Purpose
1. A student can lodge an application for review of FEE-HELP in writing to Kaplan within 12 months of the date the student withdrew from the course of study, or within 12 months of the end of the period in which the course of study was, or was to be, undertaken.
2. Kaplan will, within 14 days of receiving the application for review, approve the application and re-credit the students FEE-HELP balance if satisfied that the circumstances were:
   • beyond the students control
   • did not make their full impact on the student until on, or after, the census date; and
   • make it impracticable for the student to complete the requirements for the unit during the period in which the student undertook, or was to undertake the unit.
3. Where a student is not satisfied with the initial decision made by Kaplan, they may lodge a review of the FEE-HELP in writing to Kaplan within 28 days of the initial receipt of notification that their initial review of FEE-HELP was unsuccessful.

Kaplan will acknowledge receipt of an application for review of a reviewable decision in writing within five working days and inform the applicant that, if the National Manager, Higher Education Operations (the reviewer) has not advised the applicant of the decision within 45 days of receiving the application for review, the reviewer is taken to have confirmed the original decision. The acknowledgement will also advise the applicant of his/her right to apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) for review of the decision made by the reviewer and will advise the applicant of the AAT’s contact details and approximate cost of making an application.

Once the decision is reviewed, the reviewer will provide the applicant with written notice of the outcome and reasons as to why the decision was taken. The reviewer will also advise the student in writing of their right to apply to the AAT for an independent review of the decision in relation to FEE-HELP and provide the contact details and the approximate cost of making an application.

^ Kaplan will waive the requirement that the application be made before the end of the 12 months, on the grounds that the student can provide evidence that it would not be, or was not, possible for the application to be made before the end of that period.
