

Kaplan Professional Extension Policy

Vocational Education

Kaplan Education Pty Ltd. ABN 54 089 002 371, trading as Kaplan Professional. Registered as a Registered Training Organisation RTO No. 90116

Scope

This policy is applicable to students of Kaplan Education Pty Ltd trading as Kaplan Professional (referred to as 'Kaplan Professional'). The policy applies to all vocational education students and staff involved in the provision of education and training products and services for learners.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines and conditions for granting extensions of study and assessment to students undertaking nationally accredited vocational educating and training (VET) courses with Kaplan Professional.

Policy Statement

Kaplan Professional recognises that students may, on occasion, require additional extra time to complete their study and assessments. This could occur for a range of circumstances and may involve reference to the Access and Equity Policy in determining the extension to be granted.

To meet the varying needs of students, a range of extension options are available. These options may vary depending on the particular course of study and the student's circumstances.

Subject reenrolment

when the subject expires and all applicable extensions are exhausted and there are still assessments deemed to be 'not yet demonstrated', the student will need to re-enrol in the subject and a fee is charged for the re-enrolment.

Guiding procedures

Extension type

Assignment resubmission / exam resit period

If a student reaches the end of their initial enrolment period and has been deemed 'not yet demonstrated' in one or more assessment tasks, then an additional 4 weeks is granted provided all assessment tasks were attempted during the initial enrolment period. This is referred to as the Assignment resubmission and/or exam resit period.

This additional 4 week time period starts from the End of the initial enrolment period.

Students do not need to contact Kaplan for this extension to be applied.

If one or more assessment tasks were not attempted within the enrolment period, the student is not eligible for an additional 4 weeks at no charge. Should more time be required a Formal extension must be sought and a fee will apply.

Formal extension

- Students can purchase a Formal Extension if additional time beyond the enrolment period is required.
- Students may pay for either four or eight weeks, with a maximum of eight weeks allowed per subject.
- Requests for a Formal extension must be submitted within one week of the initial expiry date or the assignment resubmission/exam resit period.
- Reduced subject enrolment fees may apply if requested within one week. After one week, standard fees apply as published on the Vocational Education Fees page https://www.kaplanprofessional.edu.au/faqs/financial- services-fees/ will apply.
- Should a student not successfully complete after the extension period and a second re-enrolment is required, the full enrolment fee applies.
- The extension begins from the initial expiry date.
- If approved and payment is received, students will be notified of the new expiry date within 24 hours.

Notification requirements for a formal extension

Students must apply for a Formal extension by completing the Study Options form-enrolments@kaplan.edu.au or by phoning Student Services on 1300 662 203.

Prior to contacting Kaplan, students should:

- refer to their course outline to familiarise themselves with enrolment timeframe and assessment requirements.
- familiarise themselves with the Extension schedule and the Extension type details in this policy
- familiarise themselves with the extension fee schedule to find out whether a fee applies.

When students exhaust all assessment attempts within their initial enrolment period ,the student will be required to reenrol. If the subject then expires, then the student can purchase a 4 of 8 week extension and complete the).

Awarding an extension

- Only one extension type can be applied at any time.
- When an extension type is applied, the extension time period will always commence from the most recent end date of the relevant subject.
- Students are notified in writing once an extension has been applied.
- For Formal extension requests, the extension fee is required to be paid prior to the extension being applied. Kaplan's extension fees are published on the website at http://www.kaplanprofessional.edu.au/faqs/financial-services-fees.

Extensions resulting from Reasonable Adjustment and Special Consideration are addressed by the Assessment Policy. No fees apply for these categories of extension.
