Definitions

Equity	In education, equity means that personal or social circumstances such as socio-economic background, gender, ethnic origin or family background, are not obstacles to achieving educational potential (fairness) and that all individuals reach at least a basic minimum level of skills.
Inclusion	Inclusion refers to creating learning and working environments in which all individuals are respected, valued and able to participate fully, regardless of their background, characteristics or circumstances.
Reasonable Adjustment	Means a modification or support put in place to assist a student with a disability, medical or mental health condition, or specific learning need to participate in learning and assessment on an equitable basis. Adjustments must not compromise the academic integrity or inherent requirement.

Responsibilities

Recruitment and Admission

- The student recruitment process is bias-free and non-discriminatory. The process is the same for all applicants and is based solely on the applicant meeting published entry criteria, and the availability of places.
- Applicants will be provided with adequate information and appropriate advice to enable them to select the most suitable course for their needs, including any prerequisite requirements and the level of support they may expect.
- Kaplan provides information and guidance to assist students in determining whether a course is suitable for their needs and within their capacity to complete.
- Any special needs of students will be identified at the enrolment stage or, if that is not feasible, as early as possible after the commencement of the course.
- Kaplan will provide students with timely and compassionate responses to their queries about additional learning support and adjustments.
- Recruitment, admission and student support practices are periodically reviewed to identify and address any unintended barriers affecting participation by identified equity groups.

Learning and Assessment

- Assessment tasks and processes will be adapted where possible to meet diverse needs, without compromising integrity.
- Students will be encouraged to disclose and provide evidence of any needs early and be consulted about adjustments.
- Curriculum and subject development will incorporate principles of inclusive design.

Reasonable Adjustment

- Kaplan will document eligibility, decisions, communications, and implementation plans.
- Specific student needs may be identified by the student or Kaplan staff at any time during the enrolment or learning and assessment process. - Students can apply for Reasonable Adjustment using the form available on the Kaplan website. Further information can be found in the Reasonable Adjustment Policy.
