Tier 1
Managed Investments
Subject outline

Tier 1 Managed Investments

Subject overview

This subject introduces students to the concepts of managed investments as they apply to retail clients. The principles underpinning the foundation, structure, regulation and risks associated with the managed investment industry are also covered. Students will be shown how to analyse and evaluate managed investments, and will gain an understanding of the documentation and tax requirements when dealing with retail client portfolios.

Students can elect to complete either a general advice or personal advice study option.

Upon successful completion of the general advice option, students will meet the education requirements of ASIC Regulatory Guide 146 (RG146) for providing general advice in managed investments to retail clients.

Upon successful completion of the personal advice option, students will meet the education requirements of ASIC Regulatory Guide 146 (RG 146) for providing personal advice in managed investments to retail clients.

General advice or personal advice

To provide general or personal advice in a Tier 1 knowledge area, students must have completed the subject Generic Knowledge.

To achieve competency to provide general advice, the following components must be completed:
- Generic Knowledge exam
- Managed Investments exam.

To achieve competency to provide personal advice, the following components must be completed:
- Generic Knowledge exam
- Managed Investments exam
- Managed Investments skills assignment.

Students who require a Statement of Attainment listing the relevant ASIC unit of competency must successfully complete all three components of the personal advice option above.

Note: If a student completes the requirements to provide general advice, but would like to provide personal advice, they must complete the skills assignment.

The Generic Knowledge component only needs to be completed once.
Learning outcomes

Upon successful completion of the general advice option, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate their knowledge of the Australian financial services industry and the relevant legislation that applies to the provision of financial product advice
2. Demonstrate their knowledge of the Australian economy and financial markets and their effects on investment issues and risk management
3. Outline the characteristics and risks associated with managed investments
4. Demonstrate their knowledge of the regulation governing the product(s) and the taxation treatment of each
5. Analyse and evaluate products in relation to different client scenarios
6. Demonstrate technical compliance with RG 146 in managed investments
7. Provide general retail financial advice in managed investments and meet all compliance obligations for the provision of that advice.

Upon successful completion of the personal advice option, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate their knowledge of the Australian financial services industry and the relevant legislation that applies to the provision of financial product advice
2. Demonstrate their knowledge of the Australian economy and financial markets and their effects on investment issues and risk management
3. Outline the characteristics and risks associated with managed investments
4. Demonstrate their knowledge of the regulation governing the product(s) and the taxation treatment of managed investments
5. Analyse, evaluate and recommend products in relation to different client scenarios
6. Demonstrate technical and skills compliance with RG 146 in managed investments
7. Provide personal retail financial advice in managed investments and meet all compliance obligations for the provision of that advice.
