Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions are applicable to individuals who have submitted an application to Kaplan Professional for an FPA Women in Finance Scholarship ('Student'). By submitting a scholarship application, Students are deemed to have accepted these Terms and Conditions.

1. Kaplan Professional FPA Women in Finance Scholarships are intended to support and encourage women with disadvantaged circumstances to enter (or re-enter) the industry and achieve leadership roles across the financial services sector. For Students who Kaplan Professional awards an FPA Women in Finance Scholarship, Kaplan Professional will waive the enrolment fees, administration, deferral and assessment resubmission fees for any four (4) subjects in Kaplan Professional's Master of Financial Planning ('Scholarship Subjects'). Students will be responsible for any other study costs including study materials, textbooks and stationery.
2. Students eligible to be considered for an FPA Women in Finance Scholarship are those who satisfy all the following criteria:
 - a. Are at least 18 years of age;
 - b. Are Australian citizens, Permanent Residents or holders of a permanent humanitarian visa;
 - c. Can demonstrate financial need and one or more sources of disadvantage;
 - d. Have not already enrolled in or commenced the Master of Financial Planning; and
 - e. Meet the entry requirements for the Master of Financial Planning, including Language, Literacy and Numeracy, Computing and Skill requirements.
3. Scholarship applications will be assessed by Kaplan Professional against a number of criteria, including: (a) financial need (b) low socio-economic status (c) re-entering the workforce (d) mature or young age (e) Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander status (f) new migrant status (g) residing in a rural or remote area (h) ability to meet entry requirements, and (i) any other criteria that Kaplan Professional deems relevant.
4. Students must abide by all applicable Kaplan Professional student policies including those relating to admission, enrolment, assessment, progression, and academic integrity and misconduct. Copies of these policies are available on the Kaplan Professional website.
5. Scholarship applications from students who have not satisfactorily passed or completed any other Kaplan Professional course or program of study may not be considered. If you are a current or previous student of Kaplan Professional and have failed or withdrawn from a course, your application may be rejected.
6. Scholarship applications must be submitted to Kaplan Professional (courseadvice@kaplan.edu.au) by 5:00pm (AEST) on 1 October 2021. Late applications will not be considered.
7. Only successful applicants will be notified of the outcome of their application and receive an offer of scholarship. Kaplan Professional will use reasonable efforts to notify successful applicants by 5:00pm (AEST) on 25 October 2021. If a Student's application is successful, the Student must accept or reject (via email) Kaplan Professional's offer of scholarship within three (3) working days from the date the offer is made. If Kaplan Professional has not received the Student's acceptance by that deadline, the Student will be deemed to have rejected Kaplan Professional's offer and the offer by Kaplan Professional is withdrawn. A Student who accepts an offer of scholarship is deemed to have been awarded the scholarship.
8. Kaplan Professional and the FPA will select successful scholarship applicants at their sole and joint discretion and Kaplan Professional not obliged to award any minimum number of scholarships.
9. The FPA and Kaplan Professional's decision on the awarding of scholarships is final and no further correspondence will be entered into in relation to the outcome.
10. For Students who are awarded the scholarship, they must commence studies in Study Period 6 2021 (commencing on 8 November 2021). In the event there are not sufficient eligible applicants to commence in Study Period 6 2021, Students awarded the scholarship after 8 November 2021 must commence studies in Study Period 1 2022 (commencing on 10 January 2022).
