

FNS40122 Certificate IV in Credit Management

Course outline

Course overview

The FNS40122 Certificate IV in Credit Management is for people wanting to work in the financial services industry as a credit/lending officer, credit controller, customer service officer, credit analyst or reconciliation officer.

This qualification meets the educational requirements of ASIC's regulatory standard RG206 Credit licensing: Competence and training. This standard is required to be met by people in responsible manager and credit management job roles. The requirement of RG206 is that the qualifications and experience of employed credit officers demonstrate that they are 'fit and proper' to engage in credit activities.

This course provides students with an excellent understanding of the lending industry, including developing skills and knowledge in lending and loan processing operations, making sound and compliant loan decisions, and developing productive client relationships.

Learning outcomes

On successful completion of the FNS40122 Certificate IV in Credit Management, students should be able to:

1. Accurately and efficiently evaluate and process loan applications.
2. Identify and meet the needs of clients with lending needs.
3. Develop productive relationships with clients.
4. Apply knowledge of the financial services industry to their professional practice.
5. Identify future learning opportunities for themselves.

Topics

Course entry requirements

There are no entry requirements.

Individuals are required to be aged 18 years or older to enrol in this course.

Individuals who are in Australia on a student visa are unable to enrol in this course. If you're in Australia on a visa and wish to enrol, you need to ensure you're enrolling in accordance with the study conditions of your visa.

Course duration

Students have a total of:

- 26 weeks to complete the learning and assessment requirements for the FNS40122 Certificate IV in Credit Management, from their initial activation date.
- An additional four (4) weeks resubmission time per subject, which will be granted if all assessment tasks have been attempted and the student has been deemed not yet competent in one or more tasks. This time can be used to resubmit a written and oral assignment or resit an exam.

Therefore, if a student completes the learning and assessment, and the resubmission time in every subject is granted, the duration will be 30 weeks.

The amount of training for this course may be up to 6 hours per week. The amount of training is the hours a student can expect to spend engaged in structured learning or tutor-led activities.

The assessment hours for this course are 8 hours per week. These are the hours a student can expect to spend engaged in assessment activities.

In addition to the amount of training, students who are new to industry or vocational training could need up to 7 hours per week known as unsupervised hours. These additional hours are for study skills or further research. For example, a student not working in industry would need more time to review industry websites that are usually introduced in workplace compliance training. Students working in industry may be able to complete the course requirements in a shorter timeframe or less hours per week.

If a student applies for extensions beyond the 26-week completion timeframe or is granted special consideration, the maximum period of time to complete this qualification is two years from the qualification activation date. If enrolling in single subjects with the intention of completing a qualification, the two year timeframe is calculated from the initial activation date of the first subject.

Additional study-related fees apply to formal extensions and re-enrolments. Please refer to the Vocational Education Fees schedule found here.

Please also refer to our Vocational Education and Training (VET) Enrolment Terms and Conditions here or our Student Handbook here for important information on:

- Subject activation and completion timeframes
- Extensions
- Subject re-enrolment
